NOTICE
—TO—
GAS CONSUMERS.

IN compliance with a pledge made in the communication of February last, to the Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the have determined to reduce the price on their sales of Gas supplied on and after the

First Day of December next to the lowest rate than deemed possible, allowing a small profit on the capital invested, and pledge themselves that the price then established shall range among in other Southern and Southwestern cities.

Their apparatus, lately at great expense, improved and extended, enables them to supply as pure, strong and brilliant gas light as that supplied any where in the United States.

With reference to a much threatened opposition in business, they do not deem it necessary, probable, the Company hereby give notice to their patrons and the public, that in case of an actual competition they will supply their demands at

One-Third, or Less than One-Third the Rates Established by such Competitors.

Their Works were constructed with a view of remunerating the owners for their investment, as well as for public convenience. Notwithstanding such intention, they will sell or furnish of the price asked by any competing or opposing Company.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store

The sheds will be divided into fire proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one day's save on all cotton sent for compressment from other warehouses, while on all cotton from our warehouse for compressment there can be two drayages saved; since it would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays

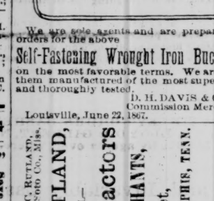
FASSMAN'S IRON TIES
—FOR—
COTTON BALES.



THE undersigned have made extensive arrangements to supply the demand for these Ties the present season.

In addition to the FASSMAN IRON TIE and BUTTON TIE, so extensively used heretofore, they now offer his ALLIGATOR TIE, with teeth so arranged as to instantly clamp the hoop when the pressure is removed from the bale and hold it without slipping.

Great pains have been taken to secure the best quality of iron.

These Ties are so simple in their arrangement that they can be applied by any one, to bales of any size, with the same facility and expedition as rope. In strength, security and facility of application, they will compare favorably with any yet introduced.

The advantages of Iron Ties are now generally recognized; but it is deemed not out of place to call the attention of the planters to the very emphatic recommendation of Inventors, Steamboat Captains, and Owners and Agents of Sea steamers and Sailing Vessels, recently published in the newspapers in New Orleans.

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, and our undertaking, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, to make the best and to sell low in all the United States and Europe, to give the most guarantee of interest, and our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other first class House.

The t ne of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing the quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register ringing in its peculiar fullness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by ming ing with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined quality of tone being always delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre serpentine both richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

TO OUR BRETHREN IN MEMPHIS.

Two ladies, respectable, intelligent and educated, reared in Virginia, and impoverished by the late war have requested us to endeavour to aid them, among the Brethren and elsewhere, in obtaining employment by which they may support themselves. They do not ask alms. They are entitled to the protection and assistance of the fraternity, one as the sister of a Mason, and herself in possession of side-degrees, and the other as the descendant of a Mason and the near relative of others. They desire employment as copyists, in stores or families or otherwise,—in any mode that is respectable and will support them decently.

It is unfortunate that so many places which women can quite as well fill, are filled by men, especially in these evil days, when so many ladies who have been reared in comfort and respectability are reduced to utter poverty. To them, unfortunately, few opportunities of suitable employment, as saleswomen, clerks, copyists and the like are open. They can sew and earn three or four dollars a week, while compositors can earn forty or fifty; but the needle-woman is a slave who starves.

We beg the Brethren to help us to find these ladies employment. Surely there is work for them to do.

FAUSTUS FELIXQUE SIT.

BRO.·. CHARLES OBERMEIER, of this city has handed us the letter which we publish below, that the name of the writer may be held in perpetual remembrance among Masons:

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 12, 1867.

Charles Obermeir, Esq., Memphis, Tenn.:

Dear Sir: I have this day forwarded you by Adams Express your Masonic jewel, and beg leave to congratulate you on its recovery. In the fall of 1864 a soldier was arrested as a deserter in Washington by one of Baker's detectives, and his money and valuables taken from him. He was sent to his regiment, and subsequently sent me a power of attorney to recover his money and valuables. I applied to the Secretary of War and an order was issued directing the surrender of the money and other valuables. Among them was your jewel, which I retained in my hands, and now have the pleasure of forwarding it to the proper owner.

Please acknowledge the receipt of the jewel. Yours fraternally,

THOS. E. LLOYD.

MORE LAW.

We find the following opinions in the National Freemason:

C. S. Y.—"A candidate was proposed and elected in my Commandery, but before the conclave at which he was to have received the order of the Red Cross, he was thrown from a vehicle, his leg so badly broken that it had to be amputated, and he made a permanent cripple. In view of the circumstances, ought he not to be allowed to proceed?

Answer.—No. The practice in this State is founded on that of the Lodge which requires a man at his initiation to be hale and sound, but regards a main afterward received as no bar to progress. Thus a Chapter would refuse to confer the Mark on a Master Mason not hale and sound, but would advance a Mark Master becoming maimed after the reception of that degree. In like manner with the Commandery, an applicant for the first Order must be perfect in whole or accident after receiving that Order would make no difference.

This is very modern law, we think, if it is law at all. There has never been any such rule in any European Rite or System, so far as we know; and nothing of the kind is enacted by the fundamental law of American Chapter Masonry or Templarism. If a man may become a Master Mason, though maimed after initiation, there is no reason that we can imagine, why he may not continue to advance. The provision of the old law as to bodily qualifications only applies in terms to apprentices. If it does not prevent these from advancing, when maimed after initiation, this must be because it applies exclusively to candidates for initiation. We do not believe that, by any fundamental or old law, it applies at all, in Chapter Masonry or Templarism; and we know it does not in the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, into which, indeed, a good deal of the modern nonsense in the shape of Masonic 'law' has not yet found its way.

JUDGMENT.—"A Lodge at the regular time of choosing elects a Master and Wardens, and, the hour being late, puts off the installation to another meeting. At that meeting the Master elect declines to be installed. Under the circumstances the old Master claims to hold over, while others claim that the Wardens should be installed and the Senior Warden act as Master. What is your opinion?

Answer.—In our judgment the old Master would be obliged to hold over. Every Master is elected for one year, or until his successor is elected and installed. An elected Warden is not the successor of an actual Master; when installed the Warden is under certain circumstances the locum tenens of the Master, but he remains a Warden still, and is therefore not a lawful successor of a superior officer. It might appear that the Master elect refusing to be installed, the Warden would naturally take his place, but when we reflect that the Warden is elected Warden, and nothing else, we see that he cannot assume functions not belonging to him or his office.

This argument does not seem to us particularly conclusive. If a Warden can in any case sit as Master and conduct the work, in the absence of the Master, and if in case of the death or resignation of the Master he becomes his locum tenens until the end of the term, why is he not the successor of the former Master, if the Master elect dies before installation or refuses to be installed?

The old law and land-mark was, that upon the death, resignation, etc., of a Master, the office reverted to the last Past Master, as of right. The Grand Lodge of England had no right to change that, and the old rule ought to be restored, if there is any peculiar qualification necessary, as a part of the ceremony of installation of a Master, which is known to Masters only, and without which he is not qualified to preside as Master.

For the Wardens do not obtain that qualification. How then can they take the Master's place, and become to all intents and purposes Master, when the office becomes vacant? When the Master dies, if the Warden succeeds to his office, or is to perform the duties, he ought first to receive that part of the ceremony of installation.

It was because a Warden was not so qualified, that when the Master died, the office reverted to his predecessor. As the 'law' now stands, it is nonsense to talk about the peculiar qualification or part of the act of investiture necessary to the Master, when a Warden can preside and conduct the works without it.

When the President dies, and the Vice President succeeds him, he becomes President. If the former were to die before being actually invested with the office, the latter would take it. The former President would not hold over. The country cannot be without a President. A Lodge is no Lodge without a Master. It is the theory of the old French law,—the King never dies,—or, "the King dies, the King lives."

It is quite time that we had an authoritative code of Masonic law. Grand Lodge Edicts and decisions, Grand Masters' decisions, and Editors' oracular opinions are making a sad muddle of the law and jurisprudence of Masonry, in which ordinary legal principles and common sense also are too often set at defiance. We have three or four books on Masonic Jurisprudence, not one of which is written by a person having any knowledge of the general law, Common or Civil, as a science. It is a great error to suppose that general principles of Civil Jurisprudence do not form a part of Masonic law; or that a man can argue legal propositions correctly who has no training as a lawyer, especially if, as is the case with some who attempt it, he has no knowledge of any sort, but only a smattering of knowledge and an immense self-conceit. If nine-tenths of the so-called Masonic books were burned, and more than half the Masonic newspapers suppressed, Masonry would be vastly benefitted.

The National Freemason quotes the following from "The Lodge Militant," by Lyon:

"History records that in 1777, with America in open rebellion against her sovereignty, and menaced by more than one of the continental powers thirsting for her humiliation, Britain called for an extraordinary levy of men wherewith to meet the emergency. Carried away by the patriotism which filled their bosoms, many Lodges seem fairly to have lost sight of their principles as members of the Fraternity. They, at the period we speak of, not only devoted their funds to the payment of large sums to volunteers, but offered the rite of initiation free to all who chose to join the regular army."

He continues:

When in apprehension of the threatened invasion by Revolutionary France (1794), the British nation flew to arms, the Craft were not wanting in their expression of sympathy with the volunteers—many of the Lodges having so far acknowledged the patriotism displayed by the citizen soldiery as to admit, at half-fees, those of them who were inclined to enter, and who were approved. But long anterior to either of the events to which we have adverted, volunteers were wont to receive special consideration at the hands of the Fraternity. It is shown by the minutes of the Ayr Squaremen Incorporation that when in 1715, the Chevalier de St. George attempted to regain for his dynasty the throne from which their misrule had driven them, the Fraternity's attachment for the House of Hanover developed itself in the facilities to become "masters of craft," that were presented to those who volunteered to take up arms wherewith to defend the King and Constitution.

"June 9, 1720. . . . John M'Galloch, who was received freeman of the trade and allowed to exercise his employment, on account of his enlisting himself in the Town's Company and serving as volunteer the time of the late rebellion, in defense of His Majestie's person and government, craved to be admitted to the haill privileges of the trade by voting in the election of a Deacon and in all other matters falling under the trades consideration, which being considered by the trade, they hereby admit the said John to the haill privileges any other member of the Incorporation bruiks and enjoys."

AN INCIDENT OF THE WAR.

I give the following incident, falling under my own observation, as an instance where the Masonic tie of brotherhood proved stronger than the fear of death, and more lasting than the hatred of moral foes. At the second battle of Cold Harbor, the repulse of the Federals left the ground in front of the Confederate works strewn with their dead and wounded—these lying more than a day under the hot July sun, dying with thirst, begged piteously for help, but in vain, as the Federal lines were so close that none could leave the protection of the breastworks without being made a target for their bullets. Some dragged themselves into a ditch and were bolsted over by means of waist-belts buckled together and let down to them.

At this time, when to cross the works seemed certain death, two men came to headquarters, and asked permission to bring in a wounded Federal lying in their front. They were referred to the order prohibiting such reckless exposure, and the danger of the attempt pointed out. They answered that this man had shown the "Masonic Signal of Distress," and that as Masons, they felt bound to attempt to relieve him at any cost. The General (R. F. Hoke,) could not refuse his consent, and one mightfall the two went upon the field and although exposed to the greatest danger, succeeded in bringing the man safely off. He proved to be a Lieutenant-Colonel badly shot in the head, he was carried to a hospital; carefully attended by Masons, and eventually recovered from his wounds at first considered mortal. As Gen. Grant sent in no flag of truce, but continued his fire upon the Confederate ambulance corps, his wounded lay where they fell and nearly all died without help in the sight of the two armies, but the Masonic signal feebly raised, had found a response from the hostile breasts, and added one more to the many victories of Love over Death,—N. Y. Dispatch.

MASONIC TOLERATION.

On the 25th of July, 1867, the magnificent hall of Oriental Lodge, No. 33, F. & A. M., in Chicago, Illinois, was dedicated by the Grand Lodge of that State, with imposing ceremonies. The oration delivered at the conclusion of the dedicatory ceremonies was a very eloquent one, by Dr. J. Adams Allen. From it we take the following extracts:

"Within the walls of this Lodge room with its symbolic lights raying down upon us from amid the starry decked canopy stretching over it, the voice of partisan strife cannot be heard. Here the East and the West, the North and the South, meet upon the level, act by the plummet and part upon the square.

"Sectional jealousies and controversy fade away before the silent but potential influences that fill our halls. With politics we have nothing to do, but with us Mason may not lift either voice or hand against Mason. Neither, under the influence of our principles, can they raise war any more. The strife of sects or the clash of opposing creeds can find no admission between this East and West; but around this common altar we can lift up humble and devout adoration to that Divine Being whose existence we all recognize, and whose revealed will the principles and tenets of our Order strictly enjoin us to obey.

"Together we rejoice at the evidences around us of the material prosperity of the nation, and while we rejoice that in pure principles have commended it to the confidence of so many whom we are delighted to respect and venerate as great and wise, and good. We light our candles from their torches, for we believe that these are set on fire by that holy flame which cometh only from the throne of the Most High. With affectionate ardor we cling to the heirloom which has descended from the good men and true of all times to the good men and true of our time."

The design of Masonry is to laud humanity, not in a narrow channel, and in an unhealthy harbor of selfishness and bigotry, but upon the broad, unbounded ocean of truth and goodness, where no storms of sect or party can bear rule. She does not require her members to look through the dark lens of sectarian bigotry or heathen idolatry, but to God, in hopeful trust and childlike confidence, and cherish a brotherhood upon which reliance can depend. Masonry, as a moral power in the world, must accomplish her work, not by any arbitrary brute force, but by the establishment of principles in the mind; by the love and practice of truth in the heart, by which betters the condition of men. Consequently it must expect to have selfishness to contend with. The object of Masonry is to promote that which is good, and teach truth, inculcate a true knowledge of the arts and sciences, but more especially to build up a system of moral ethics, and spread the cement of brotherly love. It is a theory of moral right and justice among all the nations of the globe, to extend the highest system of civilization, and encourage the most perfect improvements in cultivation over the earth. It has no enemies to conquer, and no victories to win, except over ignorance. She is one of the great teachers of humanity, taking her pupils out of darkness into light; by making the world better, wiser and more truthful.—Mystic Star.

JURISPRUDENCE OF THE ORDER.

Masonic law has little of the Republican or Democratic spirit about it. All its greater principles, termed in Masonic parlance, landmarks, and most of the inferior details of its governmental polity, are provided to our hands, as they were provided to our fathers' hands ages since, in the traditions and publications of the Order. Of all the wretched theories into which modern some learned in the economy of Masonic government have run, there has been no more pernicious in their results as that assumption which place the original and sole authority of Masonic government in the consent of the governed. This error strikes a blow to the very base of the structure on which all government and order rests among men, the inviolable sanctity of law. It substitutes popular caprice for the authority of antiquity, and, perhaps, it is not too much to add, in view of the high and mighty purpose for which the Masonic Institution was originally set up, the authority of God. It writes upon the sand of the wave-washed seashore the laws which ought to be carved in the rock of eternal justice.—Anon.

FREEMASONRY IN THE WORLD.

It is estimated, by those who ought to know, that at present, in round numbers, there are about 1,250,000 Free and Accepted Masons scattered upon the face of the globe. Of this number some 150,000 are in England, 100,000 in Scotland, and 60,000 in Ireland. There are about 60,000 on the continent of Europe; 300,000 in the United States; and fifty thousand in other parts of the world. In England there are two or three thousand persons initiated every year; and Papal allocutions and feminine denunciations notwithstanding, the Masonic body is said to be everywhere increasing.

JEDDO is now the largest city in the world. It has a population of 5,000,000, and many of its streets are over twenty miles in length.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

RICHMOND, October 25.—Returns received at Gen. Schofield's headquarters show conclusively that the State has voted in favor of the Convention. It is also certain that the Convention will be Radical by one hundred majority. This city elected the following Radicals after three days contest: Hunnicutt, Underwood, Morrissey, and two colored men. Radicals did not receive fifty white votes in the city, nor did Conservatives receive fifty colored votes. The negroes who voted the Conservative ticket were again chased from the polls by a negro mob. Hunnicutt's son, who was arrested for tearing up Conservative tickets in the hands of negroes at the Monroe ward, and sent to Libby prison, was subsequently released.

The Times' special says that the polls in three of the wards in this city were continued open for the benefit of the registered negroes unable to vote previously. The whites were in the majority last night, but the scale was soon turned in favor of the blacks. At 11 a.m., Gen. Schofield closed the polls, and soon after another booth was opened in the third ward, where the blacks massed themselves to the exclusion of all others. The whites were crowded out, and violations and disturbances became frequent among the excited multitude, which required the military frequently to quell.

Hunnicutt, Jr., was found tearing up Conservative tickets in the hands of colored men and promptly arrested and put in military and lodged in Libby Prison. He was released this evening by Gen. Schofield. At 10:30 the polls were still open, the blacks appearing to be innumerable, and the voting may continue all night.

These elections may be contested, and the Conservatives will issue an appeal to the people of the country protesting against the manner in which the election has been conducted.

HAVANNA, October 24.—Mexican news says that it is the intention of Santa Anna to leave Mexico for Havana about the 24th inst.

M. Plumb, the American Charge de Affairs, had arrived at the capital.

The election of Juarez is confirmed. The reforms proposed by the Convestodos are probably defeated.

A New York correspondent of the 19th says that the Captain-General was still chary of allowing telegraph news to be circulated.

A message containing the news of Garibaldi's victories in Italy was published in one of the papers after the Captain-General had suppressed it, and a searching inquiry was going on for the offending operator who permitted it to get abroad.

The Times' Havana correspondent says that Jose Maria La Cernzia, one of Mejia's ministers, who has been executed, embalmed and buried by the newspapers, is alive in Havana.

The appointment of the new Captain General, Lersundia, gives general satisfaction.

LONDON, October 24.—Dispatches from Florence say it was known in that city early last night that Gen. Garibaldi had traversed Italy and succeeded in reaching Reline, in the province of Trenis; that his arrival there was discovered, and he was forbidden by the Italian authorities from proceeding any further. Since then nothing has been made publicas to his movements or whereabouts.

The Times of to-day has a strong editorial on French intervention. It summatizes the course of France as cruel to Italy and perilous to Europe, and declares that its effect will be transient, as the Garibaldians must rise again, and a new enterprise against Rome is inevitable.

The Paris troops which were sent to embark on the naval expedition for the relief of Rome are now encamped around Toulon.

COMMISSION MERCHANT,
No. 276 Front Street,
MEMPHIS, TENN.

LIBERAL ADVANCES—Supplies at Wholesale Prices. Commission for selling Cotton, One Dollar per Bale.

To the Cotton Planters of West Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas:

The undersigned respectfully tenders his services as agent or the sale of your cotton in this city, and for the purchase of your supplies. The unfortunate termination of the late war, which so immediately affected the best interests of the South, has also had its effect upon the Commission Business of this city, as transacted between planter and merchant. You doubtless well remember with what pertinacity (previous to the war), amounting in some instances to annoyance, you were pressed for your business at the rate of fifty cents per bale commission, free of drayage, and stored for twelve months without charge. Then (as well as again) the producer was the ruling element, and big rents, rich landlords and purchasing were the result of planters' patronage. No people or occupation have been more seriously prostrated than planters and planting, and none so much deserve to be fostered and aided in their unfortunate changed condition. How this aid and encouragement has been meted out you I opine too well know. Onerous government taxes in general, and a special tax upon your leading production, Cotton, large profits you have had to pay upon supplies furnished, commission on sales ranging from $1 to $5 per bale, monthly storage at exorbitant prices, and other exposures, as per reference to your recollections, as a sum total will leave you but little if anything upon which to rebuild your shattered fortunes, or to compete with (if not under order of affairs—free labor. When I withdrew from the Cotton and Commission Business in 1860, private reasons then led me to believe that I would never engage in it again. The solicitations of many friends (as that were former patrons), and a desire to promote the interest of the planting community, so far as my feeble efforts can effect, and the apparent success and gratification exhibited to a community that in times past tended so materially to the prosperity of Memphis and its mercantile community, has determined me again to offer my services in the capacity as stated. The unsold stocks of cotton in the United States and short supplies in the hands of New England manufacturers has caused some advance in prices from the late depression, hence early sales may be prudent and remunerative; such was the case the past two seasons, and many instances have had cause to regret the acting upon the too common practice of holding and drawing upon their consignments. I would advise no planter to send forward his cotton unless he wished it sold upon the first active market. It will be held at home much cheaper than in Memphis. My charges for selling cotton will be One Dollar per bale. Insurance effected in all cases if not instructed to the contrary. Shall buy your supplies from wholesale houses, giving you the benefit of same. In short, by strict attention to all the departments of our business, I hope to merit a large share of patronage.

Very respectfully,
se24 R. A. MOON.

MUST THE PRESIDENT PERJURE HIMSELF?

Mr. BOUTWELL, of Massachusetts, in a recent letter to a Northern journal, speaking of the President, thus oracularly expounds the law as to that Magistrate's powers:

Civil officers he may suspend for crime or misconduct in office; and officers of the army and navy he may suspend, and then subject them to trial by courts-martial. In this way he takes care that the laws be faithfully executed, and therein faithfully "executes the office of President."

Nor can the President disobey a law upon the ground that it is unconstitutional. When a bill is submitted to the President for his approval, as every bill must be submitted to him, he then exercises under the Constitution, and for the last time, his constitutional prerogative of Judging whether the proposed law is constitutional or not. If he believes it to be unconstitutional he returns it to Congress with his objections thereto, and at that moment his power over the subject is exhausted. He must wait for and obey the decision of Congress.

If Congress, notwithstanding the President's objections, believing the bill to be constitutional, shall pass the same by a two thirds majority of each House it is no longer competent for the President to consider whether the law is constitutional or not. It is his duty to obey. In the passage of a bill by a two-thirds majority of a Presidential veto, the executive power is constitutionally annihilated upon that subject, and the President has no longer a constitutional right, for any reason, to interpose an obstacle to the administration of the law.

If the President, as your correspondent seems to maintain, may for any reason set aside a statute, or any provision of a statute, duly passed according to the Constitution, whether by the President's approval or an executive veto, then is our Government no longer a government of laws, but it becomes a government of a single man.

Apropos of this subject, the National Intelligencer says:

There is no authority anywhere under this Government to create a despotism. We will not recognize any such monster as the offspring or outbirth of our free system of laws. We declare it a gross imposition, a wicked perversion of the Federal system, an attempt to enslave the people North and South; for if it is lawful in one region it may be lawful everywhere. The government of the Constitution is indivisible. It means the freedom of all, and free institutions for all. Its authorities and its privileges go hand in hand. It exacts obedience because it gives protection. Its army and navy are the agents of the civil power of the State. If the civil power is to be up one day and down the next, it serves but to swell the list of sham securities with which, to keep up the illusion, the pages of our history are defiled. Military power went down in the revolution of 1688 never to rise where the English language is spoken. It struggled heavily for resurrection during the Napoleonic wars; but it failed, as it will fail here.

And in another article the same sober and sound journal says:

The whole reconstruction scheme is equal, in treasonable essence and political crime, to the late rebellion itself. It is in a complete perversion of the legal powers of the Legislature, and their employment in a grand revolutionary movement which not only contemplates the overthrow of the constitutional system, but the deposition of the President, the suppression of the Supreme Court, and the transfer of all the active agencies of the Government to the will of Congress.

And what is the theory of this monstrous treason against the government of the Constitution?

Mr. Stevens tells us it is revolution—revolution by parties acting "outside of the Constitution." It is force—It is open-handed force, made insolent by the extent and power of its combinations. If this be true, the question arises to what extent heavy responsibility rests upon the President for not meeting the issue by the exercise of the high powers which are devolved upon him to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution." We have seen for two long years the coils of treason drawn with bold hands around the vital system of the Government; and as the work of strangling has been openly carried on, the hands of every patriotic political agent of the old system have been tied, and their feet bound by the conspirators.

It is the duty of the Supreme Court, as Judge Marshall says, "to say what the law is;" it is the duty of the President to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution." The one is the judge of the law and the Constitution in their application to persons; the other is the judge of those public events and combinations which threaten the overthrow of the Constitution and the supremacy of the law.

The time has come when the President should feel the force of this distinction, and, in view of the wide-spread conspiracy which now seeks the utter subversion of a great free system of government—a conspiracy which has already erected a naked military despotism over one-third of the States of the Union; which is marshaling its forces for the deposition of our Chief Magistrate; which openly sustains every act of arbitrary authority of its tools and minions; which proscribes the whites of the entire South, and foists into power the ignorant blacks—we insist, it is the duty of the President to employ all the authority of the Executive Department to "preserve, protect and defend the Constitution."

It is quite unnecessary to discuss the question whether the President is bound, by his duty "to see the laws faithfully executed," to violate his oath "to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution," by executing a law in palpable violation of the Constitution, which he knows to be so, which no man can deny is so, and which subverts the Government itself—until the Supreme Court shall have decided that law to be what no one can deny it is. What if it were a law to destroy the Supreme Court itself? What if a question either cannot be or never is brought before that Court for adjudication?

It is quite unnecessary, because the question for the President has all the time been, not whether he should execute a law that pretended to be constitutional, but whether he should help Congress to exercise powers, or obey its order to himself exercise powers confessedly outside of the Constitution. It has all the time been a question whether he should himself violate the Constitution, by order of Congress; whether he should assume and exercise powers "outside of the Constitution," and which he knew and declared he had no right to exercise, because Congress saw fit to perjure itself and assume imperial and unlimited powers, not conceded to it by the Constitution. The whole Executive power, under the Constitution, is vested in him. All military officers are his subordinates and agents. He is the Commander-in-Chief. Congress cannot, as it claims the right to do, make them its agents, or relieve him from responsibility for their acts.

At Rome, it was the highest degree of treason to attempt by force or fraud, to subvert the Government. Those guilty of it were flung headlong from the Tarpeian rock, and their memories were infamous. It is, in reason, the highest degree of treason still; although the Constitution, to prevent the recurrence of the abuses of the English law of treason, as once expounded by the Judges and as lately renewed by Judge FISHER, in his charge to the jury in SURRATT'S case, declares that treason shall consist only in levying war against the United States, adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. It is, nevertheless, a far more enormous and infamous crime in one or many whom the people entrusts with power in a republic, to plot and machinate, and by fraud or force to attempt to change the Government into a despotism, and subvert and annihilate the Constitution.

Wherefore the question for the President has all the time been, whether he would consent to become the accomplice of Congress in a crime the greatest that man can commit—in a crime, not only against the Constitution and Magna Charta, but against human freedom itself—the crime of perjury also, because in subverting the Constitution he violates his oath to preserve, protect and defend it;—a crime the greater because the President, representing the States, and elected by them, is the special and chosen guardian of their rights, against the encroachments of the popular majority.

It is unnecessary to discuss the question whether he must wait for a decision of the Supreme Court, because that decision has already been made, by a unanimous Court, and in the most authoritative form. That decision, at least, was made in the DRED SCOTT case, and the only two Republican Judges on the Bench, dissenting from the opinion of the majority on other points, emphatically concurred with them in declaring that Congress had not and could not have and exercise any powers whatever outside of the Constitution, in or over any territory of the United States, no matter how acquired, and whether by conquest or otherwise. All the Court held that the Constitution governed wherever the dominion of the United States extended.

This decision is the law of the land. Congress has no powers except those delegated to it by the States, and it has these by delegation from Virginia and Georgia as well as from New York and Ohio, unless Virginia and Georgia ceased to be members of the Union, by seceding from it.

It is not necessary for the President to wait, then, until some individual shall, in order to vindicate some private right, or revendicate something whereof it has been deprived by the reconstruction acts, obtain a decision of the Court in his favour, on the ground that those acts are void. That decision would not annul them, any more than the decision already made does. It would authorize the President to regard them as void; and so did that decision.

Gen. JACKSON refused to approved an act which he believed unconstitutional, although the Supreme Court had decided otherwise. It had pronounced that Congress had the power to create a National Bank. President JOHNSON is called on by his oath to refuse to execute a law which the Supreme Court had declared in advance Congress had not power to enact. He is ordered to exercise powers outside of the Constitution, when the Supreme Court has said that Congress has no such powers, and it is equally clear that he has not.

And therefore it is that we have said, that he is daily violating his oath to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution. We agree with the Intelligencer that he ought not to execute the laws in question, even if there had been no judgment of the Supreme Court denying that Congress possesses the powers which it exercises by usurpation. He is not bound to violate the Constitution, in obedience to any edict of Congress. When the Supreme Court decides, he must yield his own opinions. Until it does so, he must decide for himself, for if he commits perjury and subverts the Constitution, the guilt is his own and he cannot shift it to the shoulders of Congress.

A TERRIBLE WARNING.

The figures representing the majority against negro suffrage in Ohio grow, as the returns approach completion. The majority is now set down at sixty to one hundred thousand. The Radicals concede a majority of sixty-five thousand, while the Democrats claim one hundred thousand. Ohio has been heretofore deemed the center of Western Radicalism. It is the home of CHASE, STANTON, BINGHAM and WADE. This result is appalling to Radicalism. It upsets the whole basis of their legislation to render the negroes supreme, and, at one blow, overturns all their hope for the future.

This result has been obtained in the face of the largest vote cast in Ohio for three years.

The significance of this vote may be estimated when it is remembered that only a few thousand—a mere handful—of negroes would have been enfranchised if the people of Ohio had accepted the amendment establishing negro suffrage. If this would have been an intolerable evil in Ohio, what must be the effect of negro suffrage in Tennessee and other Southern States where the negro voters are in the ascendant? The interrogatory carries irresistible logic with it. The people of Ohio do not intend to give over any portion of the United States to semi-barbarism. Will the Radical leaders heed this warning voice in time?

THE Memphis and Charleston railroad last week paid the balance of its debts due to the Government, amounting to $437,000.

IT is stated that A. H. STEPHENS considers B. H. HILL'S letters to Gen. GRANT as the most powerful papers on public affairs that have appeared since the close of the war.

IN THE speech of the Governor elect, Gen. HAYES, at Fremont, Ohio, the other day, he said Gen. GRANT was already nominated as the next Republican candidate for the Presidency.

HORACE GREELEY recently used the words "Jupiter Pluvius" in an editorial article, and they appeared the next morning in printas "Inspector Phineas."

THE New York Herald remarks that nearly all the stock brokers who have figured for fifteen or twenty years in the stock market have come out as poor as they commenced. In fact, Wall street is an expensive three card monte table.

THE new grass so rapidly spreading in the South, called Leepidasa, came from Japan. The Charleston papers unite in pronouncing it the greatest blessing in the form of grass that has ever been bestowed on the South.

THE yellow fever, it seems, is a respecter of persons. It has been remarked in New Orleans that no one of sixty workmen employed in laying pavement there, and working all day amid the fumes of tar, has caught the yellow fever.

GEN. SHERMAN is expected in Washington in the first week of November, and unless the President changes his intentions, he will be ordered to take command of a new Military Department, which will embrace, probably, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Revolution in Peru.

Advices from Peru to the end of September state that the city of Arequipa is entirely in the hands of revolutionists and being fortified. Their programme is the overthrow of the administration of Prados and the restitution of the Constitution of 1854, modified in 1860, and the recognition of Col. Canes as the constitutional head of the Republic. The clergy, people and troops in and around Arequipa are said to have fraternized with the revolutionary forces. Gen. Bustament, who was sent to suppress the movement, is questioned. There were many arrests at Lima of suspected persons and the opinion is growing that Prados' days are numbered.

THE movement made throughout the country to nominate Gen. GRANT for the Presidency, has developed itself in Washington, in the shape of a strong pressure upon him for a letter clearly defining his views on pending national questions. Such of his friends as are urging the writing and publication of a letter, are confident that one will be forthcoming.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

MEMPHIS, TENN., October 25, 1867.

To the W. Master, Wardens and Brethren of South Memphis Lodge No. 118, F. & A. M.:

BRETHERN: We the committee to whom was assigned the melancholy duty of presenting suitable preamble and resolutions upon the death of our late highly esteemed and now deeply lamented brother, MORRIS SAMTER, beg leave to report that they submit the following as but faintly expressive of the unfeigned sorrow experienced by themselves upon an occasion so fruitful of mourning to us all, and ask their adoption by this Lodge:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Him who alone is great and mighty, to transfer by death from membership in this Lodge, our friend and brother, MORRIS SAMTER, to a seat in the Grand Lodge above, where paralysing disease and death are never known—therefore be it

Resolved, That through the death of Brother SAMTER we experience the loss of a kind friend, a gentle brother and a faithful Mason.

Resolved, That the prayers of this Lodge are freely offered in behalf of our deceased brother, vouching for his earthly right to be with the just and true, "nothing doubting."

Resolved, That the family and friends of Bro. SAMTER, to whose memory we have not said farewell, may rest assured of our earnest sympathy in the loss they have sustained, and that "while sorrow's memories are still a sorrow," we say to share our grief with us.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be spread upon our record, a copy of the same be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother, and be published in the APPEAL.

Resolved, That in token of respect to the memory of Bro. SAMTER, the furniture and the jewels of our Lodge shall be draped in mourning, and that the members thereof will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

F. B. CAMPBELL,
B. M. LEVY,
S. HOLZMAN,
Committee.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

THE eminent and distinguished Doctor, Sir James Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and most learned and distinguished men of this age, in his treatise on Consumption, says: That Pulmonary Consumption can be cured, admits no longer of a doubt, and all eminent writers on pathological anatomy at this present time agree that consumption can be cured, if proper remedies are used in time; and testimony the most convincing, clearly proves that this disease must not be trifled with by using all kinds of patent medicines and quack nostrums, but the only safe and certain cure now in use throughout the South is known as "Dr. Williams' Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naphtha," which has stood the test of more than twenty years' trial, during which time it has given the most convincing proof of its great efficacy in having arrested this most subtle and treacherous disease with thousands who are living witnesses to-day to testify to the truth of what we here state. And to the incredulous who are suffering with any pulmonary disease, no matter of how long standing, we ask you to try this medicine once, and be convinced for yourself.

Sold by all respectable Druggists throughout the South. Dealers can be supplied at J. E. WASSON & CO'S Wholesale Drug House, Memphis, Tenn., to whom all orders must be addressed. oc26 1f

One Thing is Certain,

THAT however widely great men may differ, there is a large majority of Doctors, Lawyers and Divines throughout the South who do agree that Dr. Williams' Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naphtha is the only certain cure for Pneumonia, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Strength, Whooping Cough, Catarrh, Pleurisy, Difficult Breathing, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, and a certain and sure cure for Consumption in its early stages. That it cures all of the above enumerated diseases, is a fact beyond controversy, as there are thousands of living witnesses to-day ready to testify who have been cured by this great discovery. Hear what some of our most eminent physicians of the South say of the distinguished Dr. Williams. Macon, Ga., says that "in every case he has found this preparation a safe and prompt remedy in all pulmonary affections, and takes pleasure in recommending it as a reliable anodyne, expectorant, etc."

Dr. Tennant, of Marietta, Ga., a physician of deservedly high reputation as an able and experienced practitioner of medicine, entertains and expresses the same opinion, and recommends it extensively in his practice.

Dr. F. M. Cohen, of Charleston, S. C., a gentleman of well known reputation, and a wholesale dealer and importer of drugs and medicines, recommends it in the highest terms, and puts it, exclusive of all other remedies, in his family, with the most satisfactory results.

And we might add even thousands of certificates of like recommendations of this medicine, but deem it useless, as the people are all testifying for no purpose, as this great medicine is too well known throughout the South, where it has been in use for the last twenty years, to need any further recommendation than this. Every village once used it, none are not satisfied to be without it; and so great has been the demand, that it has been only recently that we have been able to make such arrangements for its manufacture as will enable us to supply the constant demands which we are daily in receipt of from leading druggists and other dealers throughout the South.

Having established our Laboratory at the well known wholesale drug house of J. E. Wasson & Co., of this city, we are now prepared to fill all orders without delay, which shall be promptly met, (to the trade only,) and must be addressed to J. E. WASSON & CO.,

WANTED—THE PATENT
AURORA OIL.

We want men everywhere to study their own INTEREST. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make them money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is NO MORE explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney, it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and back while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right is a fortune untold worth.

FIDDLER VS. BARBER.—A musician who resides in South Memphis, named Sol. Farmer, entered a barber shop yesterday, and made a violent assault upon one Henry, a professor of the tonsorial art. The police were apprised of the difficulty, and speedily arrested the offender, who will come before the Recorder this morning.

ATTEMPT TO COMMIT RAPE.—A negro who calls himself Jim Patterson, was arrested yesterday charged with attempting to commit a rape on the person of a white woman named Lucy Stone. It appears that she lived in the same house, in the alley between Jefferson and Adams streets, with the negro, whose wife was nursing a sick lady. Fortunately the monster did not succeed in his attempt. The case will be investigated by Justice Miller to-day.

OIL EXPLOSION.—The use of the oil of Petroleum in the common lamp is not without its dangerous consequences. An explosion took place in the Stillman Block night before last, which might, and probably would have been attended with disastrous consequences, but for the ready interposition of a gentleman, who applied a remedy for the embryo conflagration. The fire which was already fastening on the premises, was extinguished with slight damage.

INQUEST.—An inquest was ordered by the Health Officer, Dr. W. E. Rogers, yesterday morning, to be held on the body of a German named Henry Frick, who died very suddenly at his residence, 384 Shelby street. T. O. Smith, undertaker, having very properly refused to bury the deceased without the certificate of a physician, made the case known to Dr. Rogers. Coroner Cotton held the inquest, and his jury rendered a verdict finding that the deceased came to his death from congestion of the brain.

ATTEMPT TO SWINDLE.—A negro woman named Polly Scott went into a store nearly opposite the Overton Hotel, yesterday afternoon, and bought some dry goods. She gave the woman from whom she purchased them forty-five dollars. On reaching home and counting her change, she found she was out thirteen dollars. The seller of the goods refused to refund. Complaint was made to Justice Miller, who issued his warrant. An examination will be had today.

ARREST.—Officer John Scott arrested a well-dressed, rather genteel looking, man calling himself C. H. Reilly, who was distributing among the darkeys brass pieces resembling gold, and obtaining the change that would have been legitimate if the pretended coin had not been bogus. The upshot of the business is that Reilly will have to explain, as the charge of uttering false coin will be made to appear stormy against him, as his pocket had not a few left of the same sort.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather yesterday, the benefit of that charming young actress, Miss Emilie Melville, was not so well attended as we could have wished. This fact, however, did not prevent the company from giving a faithful rendition of the pieces—the fair beneficiaire playing her characters most acceptably. Her singing, as usual, drew forth rounds of applause. To-night the great play of The Hidden Hand will be presented, with Miss Melville as "Capitola." Those who have read Mrs. Southworth's Ledger story, should see the reigning star enact this part. As the "Waif upon the Waters," she is par excellence.

TWO BOARDS OF COUNCIL.—The idea that two boards will subserve the interests of the city better than the single Board of Aldermen as at present, was again brought to the notice of the Board, in the recent message of the Mayor, in view of their memorializing the Legislature relative to several changes in the city charter. He says of the proposed amendments: "The extension of the corporate limits will demand your consideration. One of the amendments asked for last winter required the legislative department of the city government to consist of a Board of sixteen Aldermen and a Board of eight Councilmen. The latter feature was stricken out of the bill. I again direct your attention to the propriety of an amendment requiring the two Boards. The experience of the past year strengthens my belief in the necessity for this amendment."

YOUTHFUL DEPRAVITY.—About seven o'clock last night two of the Mackerel species, known among these waifs as Joe Coburn and Mike McCoal, had a contest in Center alley, nearly opposite the Jimplecute saloon. They pounded each other in good style for about a half hour and only desisted when the cry of "fly cops" was made. Instead of decreasing it would appear the young wanderers are becoming more numerous in the city. The Mayor has more than once drawn the attention of the Board to the necessity of making some provision for them. In his message on Thursday, in referring to this subject, he said: "I suggest that you ask for State aid in creating and maintaining a House of Refuge for that portion of our population designated as 'mackerels.' With $10,000 from the State, $10,000 from the county, and $30,000 from the city, provision can be made for these unfortunate little ones. There are between two and three hundred of these boys and girls in this city, and it is our bounden duty to make some effort in their behalf. If an institution for this purpose is started on the proper basis—say something like that at Louisville, to which State, county and city have each contributed, and each appoint a portion of the managers—it will at once invite the attention and encouragement of all good citizens." Why does not the Committee, of which Alderman Wickersham is chairman, report?

AN AGREEABLE AFFAIR.

CANE PRESENTATION, SPEECHES, ETC.,

A very agreeable meeting of the members of the United Hebrew Brethren Beneficial Society took place last evening at the residence of Martin Cohen, Esq., when the "Brethren," availing themselves of the occasion, presented an elegant gold-headed cane to Mr. Cohen, who was the first President of the Association, which has been disolved. Mr. Skaller opened the ceremonies and devolved the duty of the presentation upon Mr. August Ginzburger, who made the following address:

Brother Cohen: After the dissolution of the late United Hebrew Brethren Beneficial Society, its members went into special meeting, Brother Skaller in the Chair, and passed the following resolutions, in appreciation of your faithful services:

HALL OF THE U. H. B. B. S.

At a special meeting held by the members of the late U. H. B. B. S., after the dissolution of said Society, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the members of the late U. H. B. B. S. are eminently due to its last President and brother, Martin Cohen, Esq., for his meritorious services, rendered as President for the last two terms, and also as a member of this Society, in which he filled every office with zeal and energy, and to the satisfaction of said Society.

Resolved, That in appreciation of said said services rendered, and to express the gratitude and love of the members of the late U. H. B. B. S. that a gold headed cane be procured and presented to our late Brother President, with the following inscription: "U. H. B. B. S. to its last President, Martin Cohen, Esq., Memphis, October 20, 1867."

Resolved, That we express our sincere wishes for the welfare of our brother, Mr. Cohen, that his useful life may be long spared to this community, to which he is a fit ornament.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the city papers, and a copy, with the testimonial, be presented to M. Cohen, Esq.

M. SKALLER,
A. GINZBURGER,
T. M. GANS,
T. S. HEILIGERS,
Committee.

MEMPHIS, October 20, 1867.

Brother Cohen, there are many duties devolved on a man, which he is commissioned to fulfill toward his fellow men and brethren; and one of the most pleasant of such duties has devolved upon me, in being selected to address you, Brother Cohen, by the Committee whose names I have read.

The late U. H. B. B., after an existence of over four years, is no more; but, thank God, nearly all its members, and especially its best supporters, are alive and here assembled. Let us praise and thank God, the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, for this and the manifold blessings bestowed upon us—and especially in this present time, when a cloud of sickness and the hand of the Almighty lays heavily, and overshadows our city—we are all able to assemble here and bestow honor on one to whom honor is due.

Brother Cohen, since the existence of this Society, you have been one of its truest members. At no time have you neglected your duty to the corner-stone of this Society—always ready to nurse a sick brother, and make his heart glad with your presence, by assisting to fill his wants. To every office of honor and trust to which we have chosen you, you lent your able talents as a scholar and gentleman, and clothed it with zeal and energy. At times, when this Society was nearly shattered on manifold rocks, you safely piloted it through storms and obstructions; and since you were its presiding officer the Society was able to take its place side by side with the best in the land. Progress is the aim of all men, and so we all have come to the conclusion to form a closer band of friendship around us, to take more solemn obligations, to form in a body which shall unite us as brethren still closer for all life to come. I am certain in what I say now, I express the wish of us all; it will be God's will, that our efforts to form an order called the "Berith Abraham" be crowned with success, that you, Brother Cohen, be our standard bearer, and the man to show us the light of true brotherly love, which in these days is so much wanted by mankind, very much sought for, seldom found, but if found, very seldom carried out in the real sense of its meaning. "United we stand, divided we fall." Oh! how short is the space allowed to man to live, and what satisfaction will it be to you and each of us, to depart this life, knowing that we have lived to be useful to each other, and everybody in general, and that we have followed the words of the Holy Scriptures, "Love thy neighbor as thou wouldst have thyself." In presenting you this testimonial—this gold-headed cane—you will not look to its intrinsic but moral value. Brotherly love, affection and regard cannot be expressed or rewarded by gifts of jewels or money. Great warriors, statesmen and men of ability in our mother countries are rewarded and decorated with stars and crosses, which they wear to show the people and remind them of their deeds. You, Brother Cohen, can wear this decoration and testimonial to show your fellow men what you have done. Keep this cane as a token of love, and whenever your eyes behold it, behold us all in a body—your truest friends. Keep it as an heirloom of your family, and let this small gift be cherished by your sons, that they may know how useful their father was to his fellow men, and learn to follow in his steps.

Accept our sincere wishes for your future welfare, and that of your family; and should ever a time come that a brother leaves our social circle, let this token remind you of him in his absence, and in scores of years, when your hair turns gray and your limbs grow feeble, lean on this staff; it will support you, as happy will and must be the man who, in his old age, can rest on a staff or pillar created and erected by good deeds in the happy and vigorous time of his youth and manhood.

This address was received with every manifestation of approbation. At its close Mr. Cohen responded as follows:

Brother Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: In answer to your most eloquent address I can hardly find language adequate enough to express my feelings. This is the happiest moment in my life. Your devoted friendship toward me I will remember so long as the blood will continue to flow in my veins. It has seldom been my lot to meet such a devoted body of friends, and I assure you that the friendship bestowed upon me shall not be wasted, and I will continue in the future as I have in the past, to try and merit your esteem and the honor you have seen fit to bestow upon me.

Mr. Chairman, you have alluded to the United Hebrew Brethren Beneficial Society being no more. True, they are no more by that name, but if God gives me life and strength, I will yet raise the United Hebrew Brethren Beneficial Society, although in another name, for one of the best organizations in the United States of America—namely the "Berith Abraham," and as I have worked and toiled in the United Hebrew Brethren Beneficial Society, so I will endeavor to do in the organization we are about to form.

Had I not known that the new order which we are about to join holds out superior advantages to its members, I would never have been satisfied for a dissolution of the old Society. When I read the constitution and by-laws of the "Berith Abraham," (located in Cincinnati), I saw, as any sane man must have seen, the superiority of the same over our old institution, and I hope and trust that I will be able to place the "Berith Abraham," as far as intelligence, morality and charity are concerned, beside the best of societies of its kind.

Mr. Chairman, allow me to express to you my hearty thanks for this magnificent gift, not for its value in gold, but for the value it has for me, in knowing, as I do, that it is a testimonial of friendship from my most devoted friends, and I hope and trust that my services in the future will only be enough to give you all the satisfaction they have given in the past. Again allow me to thank you and all the brethren who have honored me this evening, both with their presence and their kind donation.

An elegant repast was furnished by the worthy recipient, which was done full justice to by the guests assembled. The Rev. Mr. Rittermann was present, and gave much good advice to the host and guests.

The establishment of this new association upon the ruins or in the stead of that which formerly obtained, is suggestive of improvement. There are principles enjoined in the working of the new order, which more cordially unites the brotherhood than existed under the ancien regime. This is sufficiently indicated in the speeches delivered on the interesting occasion we have attempted to describe. May it have a long life, and be conducive to the happiness and prosperity of its members, and unite them by the lasting ties of friendship that can only be severed by the grave, and even after that, is preserved in perpetual freshness, watered by the tears of memory.

HALF WAY HOUSE.—Raleigh and its Springs has for some time past attracted many visitors, who have been alike benefitted by the pleasant ride and the medicinal waters. The want of a half-way house has long been felt; now that want has at last been supplied, Messrs. Ryan and Van Vorst having opened one four miles from town, which will compare favorably with any in the state. Fine liquors, good attendance and gentlemanly treatment will always be received from these gentlemen by their guests.

LOVE AND "SEVEN-THIRTIES."

Though as pure is your love
As an Angel's above
And as sweet as the thrice-distilled extract of honey,
Yet what maiden free
Will listen to thee,
Unless 'tis backed up by a neatsum of money.

Though a poet might sing
Like a wild bird in spring
And sigh till his heart strings were all snapt asunder,
Yet I see in my mind
How she'll pass like the wind
And give out a look of contemptuous wonder.

Oh, yes, my dear boys,
These beauteous toys,
Although—it may doubt it, are bought like all others,
And if marrying's the bent,
On which you're intent,
You'll find you've a bargain to make with the mothers.

If you think they lack thought,
These maxims I've taught,
That beauties are bartered like oil or corn,
That they are not sold
For greenbacks or gold,
Why go and get married and thus try it on?

"SNOOKS" ought to know better than that. He must be an irrepressible bachelor.—ED.

THURSDAY, October 24, 1867. }

R. W. Ainslie, Esq., President Howard Association:

Dear Sir: I would most respectfully offer you as my donation, in aid of the very laudable efforts of your Association, in behalf of our suffering and sick fellow beings of Memphis, the gross receipts of my establishment for one day, naming Monday next as the most desirable day for the occasion. It would be advisable that your committee make some efforts by which the proceeds would be as large as possible. Very respectfully,

M. McKEOGH, Proprietor.

M. McKeogh, Esq., Proprietor of "Donegana" Billiard Hall, Memphis, Tenn.:

Your favor of the 24th has just been handed me. In reply, I have to say that your generous offer is gratefully accepted by the Howard Association. Appreciating the noble motive that prompts this donation, at a time when imperative demands are filling our ears from the suffering poor of our city, and thanking you for your kind consideration of our cause, I am, very respectfully, yours,

R. W. AINSLIE,
President Howard Association.

A DIRECT TAX.—The Mayor called the attention of the Board of Aldermen to the Memorial they had decided to send to the Legislature asking authority to assess a special tax to relieve the city from debt. We cannot do better than use the language of Mayor Lolland in his Message: "I have called you together to take into consideration such amendments to the city charter as you desire to ask of the Legislature, and particularly to consider more thoroughly the propriety of asking for power to levy a tax for the retirement of the floating debt. I understand from the movers of this proposition that there is not the slightest objection on their part to have this subject reopened and fully discussed. When this subject was before your honorable body, discussion was invited, but none elicited until after final action had been taken. I recommend that the subject of the memorial be again taken up and considered, and if this plan of paying the floating debt is finally agreed upon, I would suggest that all receipts for money paid to the Tax Collector in payment of the floating debt shall be divided into three equal amounts, and shall be received again by the city in payment of taxes in four, six, and eight years, or shall be converted into thirty year bonds, at the option of the holder, when five hundred dollars or more are presented." The Board by a vote of six to five rescinded the order of the last meeting to memorialize the Legislature for the authority to levy the tax. It was generally conceded that our people were taxed heavily enough, without an additional amount being super-imposed. After a protracted debate, the resolution that had been offered by Alderman Passmore, as he said in good faith, at the former meeting, and which had been adopted, was rescinded by a close vote, Alderman Shaw, in the Chair, voting in the affirmative.

BEER-JERKERS AND KENO.—Incorporated in the Mayor's message, read at the last meeting of the Board, we find the following: "We should ask for such authority as will enable us to break up the 'Beer-Jerkers' Saloons' and the 'Keno' hells. Four-fifths of the murders perpetrated since the war can be traced directly to the former, and the ruin of hundreds of our young men is chargeable to the latter. There are in this city many 'Keno' rooms; some are fitted up in splendid style, with elegant carpets, sofas, tables, chairs and mirrors, and with sideboards groaning under the weight of wines, liquors and cigars, and everything else calculated to invite and amuse the unworthy, the thoughtless and the vicious. Others are furnished in less splendor, but are equally pernicious and corrupting. If the names were published of those who visit these hells, the community would be appalled at the list, both as to the number and character of their patrons. It would embrace names from almost every profession, trade and occupation in our city. The poor drayman or day laborer here loses in an hour what he has worked and toiled hard all day to gain. I regard these saloons and keno rooms as the most dangerous and corrupting vices that ever cursed this city; and if the municipal government cannot be clothed with authority to close them, and stop their ruinous practices and influences, we had as well give up the control of the city to the keno-banks and beer-jerkers, so far as morality is concerned. From the law as now administered by the courts we get no relief." Are the police so far powerless that they cannot break up these dens of iniquity which are equally a disgrace to the powers that be and those who put them in office?

Praiseworthy and Noteworthy.—As an evidence of fraternal sympathy on the part of friends in a sister city, during our briefseason of unusual and very peculiar distress, we feel a sincere pleasure in stating that Mr. Ainslie, President of the Howard Association of Memphis, received a dispatch on the 21st inst., from the Enterprise Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Cincinnati, authorizing him to draw upon the company for one hundred dollars in aid of the benevolent purposes of this organization. Such an instance of liberality and unsolicited aid on the part of the "Enterprise" should be borne in grateful remembrance. This Company, which is by all odds the leading Insurance Corporation of the West, ranking with the foremost Eastern companies in capital and assets, and surpassing all in her marvelous success, has shown as in the character of her business dealing, also in exhibitions like this of the spirit of a true humanity, that the laurels she wears have been honorably won. We understand that Messrs. Vredenburgh & Sylvester, are agents of this company in Memphis, at No. 11 Madison street, and we shall always wish them well with the "Enterprise!"

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, October 25, 1867.

Gold opened in New York at 42½ and declined by noon to 42⅝. Dealers here bought during the morning at 41 but towards the close 40c was the offering rate. There was however very little done in anything.

Silver buying at 39@42.

City Scrip is not in demand. There is an occasional Warrant offered at the counter which is taken at 40c in small amounts. The selling rates are generally 42c.

A few inquiries are made for County Warrants but the sales are light. Brokers here all rants but the sales are light. Brokers here all offered at 70, but sell at 75 to 80c as to amount.

A few lots of Police Scrip have changed hands to-day. The demand has been among those having licenses to renew. Buying at 70 and selling at 75 to 80c.

Stocks and Bonds are dull and nominal.

The October quarterly statements of all the New York city banks have been received by the Comptroller of the Currency, and their consolidated returns show the aggregate of circulation and deposits to be about one hundred and ninety millions, for which a reserve of forty-seven millions, or twenty-five per cent. is required. The statement shows a reserve of sixty millions or eight per cent. more than is required by law.

The New York cotton market opened with a good demand, and prices advanced. Ordinary, 15½ to 16c; good ordinary, 17 to 17½c; low middling, 18½ to 19c; middling, 19c; good middling, 22 to 22½c; Mobile, 20½c; Orleans, 21 to 21½c. At noon the demand was moderate and buyers cautious, and some quotations at 1 p.m., the demand was active, at full prices. Uplands 20c and low middling very scarce, at 19c. The Liverpool market opened active, with uplands at 8½d; Orleans 9d; and at 1 p.m., there was no change whatever. The sales for the day in that market were 20,000 bales; week's sales 116,000. 7,000 were taken for export, and 12,000 by speculators. Stock on hand, 678,000 bales, of which 155,000 are American.

Our market opened to-day quiet but firm with holders asking 17c, and buyers offering 17c freely. The sales for the day were not very heavy, although a table of 104 bales Middling were sold in one lot, which is about the lowest list sold this season. Low grades are very scarce and in demand at full prices. Also most all the Cotton received so far this season has run from Middling to Good Middling, and buyers who deal in the lower grades have not been able to fill orders. One buyer who has an order for 100 bales of Ordinary to Good Ordinary, finds it about impossible to get that amount. The market closed quiet but firm as follows:

Ordinary	15 @16
Good Ordinary	16@17
Low Middling	17½@18½
Middling	19 @19½
Strict Middling	19½@19¾
Good Middling	19¾@20

The rain had a depressing effect on business to-day, although prices are fully sustained on all things, and in g ain there has been an advance. The demand for Corn for the past few days has been almost exclusively for shipment South, and the market now is quite tare. We learn of the large loss on land and shippers were eager to buy at 11c. A Sandwich Island paper makes a statement relative to the raising of Cotton in that part of the world which will interest our readers. On the 14th of July a schooner brought to Honolulu from Niihau same 6500 pounds, and the steamer and Kona packet some 400 pounds from Hawaii, of the very choicest Sea Island Cotton. That from Hawaii was raised by a native, who received $255 for Cotton brought down in one week, including a premium of $100 which the had earned, and who thus had gotten nearly $1000 for Cotton delivered by hire during the past twelve months. This would indicate that the article can be grown on small patches, although on the island of Oahu the cultivation of it has nearly ceased, owing to the caterpillars and dr ught, which entirely destroyed the plantations in 1868.

There are certain tracts of low, moist land near the sea on each of the islands, both on the weather and lee sides, where this plant will thrive better than anything else, and these are the localities which should be selected—the nearer the sea the better; and of soils, sandy soil is best. Any foreigner who has the land can engage pr fitably in Cotton growing with very little outlay for capital. The product of his labor, on favorable soil, will be from fifty to sixty dollars an acre, though good management may, perhaps, increase it to eighty or a hundred dollars. Sugar-cane does not average this return to cultivators, to say nothing of having to wait three times as long for the pay.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

On Thursday night a rain set in, which lasted during yesterday, and had not ceased at a late hour last night. It was accompanied with a cold wind, which portends the near approach of frost, if not winter. The health of our city is much improved within the past two or three days, and the fever which has prevailed is assuming a mild type. It certainly has not been fatal at any time, when it is remembered that out of from twenty-five to thirty cases a day reported, the deaths have not averaged five per day, and on some days have not exceeded three, and this out of a population of fifty thousand. There has been a swell in the Ohio from recent rains, and our dispatches quote an improvement at Louisville of four or five inches since Wednesday. Whether a rise of any moment will come out of that river has yet to be ascertained. At St. Louis the river is rising or falling, but as the river men and the City Engineer are at balance on the subject, we are not sure which.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Peoria City, Capt. Silvers, will leave for St. Louis this evening at 5 o'clock.

The steamer Bayard, laid up at Pittsburg, caught fire about noon on the 23d, but was saved with little damage.

Capt. Jesse G. Hurd died at his home in Portsmouth on the 23d inst. He was in command of the ill-fated Missouri at the time of her explosion, and a few days ago passed through Cincinnati with the remains of his wife and little son, who were lost on the boat at that time. He also lost a son a short time ago, at Illawarra Landing, by yellow fever.

The G. A. Thompson sunk a barge a few days ago at Williams' Landing, at the head of Cypress Bend. Some of the freight was saved.

Jeff. Thompson, who has been down to Bosting, is now in Porkopolis.

The steamer Bertha, Capt. Yerkes, will sail for New Orleans this evening at 5 o'clock.

The Pilgrim is the Pine Bluff and Little Rock packet for to-day, and will leave at 5 p.m. She is commanded by Capt. Berry.

The Myrtle, Capt. Hardwick, departs to-day at 5 p.m for Vicksburg and all points on the Yazoo, Tallahatchie and Yalobusha rivers.

The Commercial backs out to-day at 5 p.m., for Duvall's Bluff and Augusta. She connects at the former place with the train for Little Rock. Capt. Ashford commands, and Messrs. Morton and Smithers are her clerks.

The J. D. Perry could not see enough to justify a trip to Vicksburg, so she does not enter the trade.

The City of Cairo will leave to-day at 5 p.m., for Cairo and St. Louis. She is a No. 1 packet, and is commanded by Capt. Bob Riley. Mr. White is clerk.

The Rubicon will be in port to leave to-day at 5 p.m. for Vicksburg and the bends. She is the only boat to-day, as we have no regular packet. Bill Blake is master and Alf. Grissom is clerk.

Capt. J. Lee Finney, who has for a few trips had charge of the Pilgrim's office, left yesterday for St. Louis. Capt. Finney will soon come out on a Memphis and Evansville packet.

Capt. Miller, of the firm of Levy & Miller, as well as his brother, Mr. Wm. Miller, clerk of the Des Arc, are again around, after undergoing a short spell of sickness and going on the docks for repairs. Their many friends will rejoice to hear of them being convalescent.

Will our levee from Court to Union streets be paved this season? Why should the work not be prosecuted forthwith? Stir 'em up, Mr. Wharfmaster!

The Stonewall received a cargo of live Radicals at New Orleans, bound from Germany to the Northwest. They wear short petticoats, wooden shoes, and are anxious for election day to roll around.

The Kellogg, on her up trip, was compelled to leave three loaded barges at Phillip's, owing to a derangement of her rudder and the breaking of her wheel. One of her pilots and her second engineer died on the trip, and of her original crew she brought back but four to St. Louis. The rest jumped at various points.

From the St. Louis Times we learn that the Imperial is reported hard aground at Harriet's Island, with two hundred and sixty passengers on board. It was doubtful if she would be able to work herself off. Provisions were scant, and it was feared that there would on that account be suffering among the passengers. The Zephyr was forty miles below Benton, waiting for her trip. There were but fourteen inches of water on the rocks, and it was deemed utterly impossible for her to make the return trip. The Gallatin, last reported sunk at Dauphin's Rapids, had been raised, but was so seriously injured that it had been determined by her officers to wreck her. All the boats on the upper Missouri are having much trouble.

The Ned Tracey arrived behind time last evening. She put off a large trip, received a lot of cotton, and will leave to-day at 10 a.m., for Cairo and St. Louis. The Ned is a reliable steamer, and has splendid passenger accomodations. Capt. Crane is master, and our pilots and obliging friend, Billy Blenker, is clerk.

We learn by a dispatch from Capts. Ashford and Davis to Messrs. Levy & Miller that the Commercial ran upon a snag at Little Island and knocked a hole in her lboard side, about or above the knuckles and under the shaft. The injury to the boat was not serious, but the freight in the hold was damaged so much that protest was entered at Helena. The Rowens took the Commercial's freight, and the latter boat returns to this port. Capt. Levy has a dock ready, and the Commercial will leave again this evening at the regular hour.
